

CALL FOR PAPERS

“Journal of Turkish Linguistics” is an international peer-reviewed journal, published twice a year (March and September) by the Institute for Research of Turkish Language - Skopje, Macedonia.

We invite all interested researchers from all over the globe to submit manuscripts that'll be considered for the third (September 2008) and upcoming issues of the journal.

Papers should treat directly or indirectly the Turkish language. Papers covering any Turkish linguistics field are accepted.

Reviews of other published linguistic works are also greatly accepted.

The papers should be in Turkish or English and must be an original work, not published anywhere before. For other languages, please contact us.

Papers should be sent in this form:

If the paper is in English, then initial abstract should be in Turkish and vice versa, but we prefer both Turkish and English abstracts.

Please, do not use page numbers!

There are no length limits for papers, but we prefer papers between 20-50 pages long.

Every paper will be sent to two anonymous reviewers, who are from the same or similar area of interest.

The published authors will get 5 samples of the Journal, as a compensation for their work.

All works should be submitted by e-mail to <jtl@tdae.org>.

Please send two DOC and the same as two PDF files (one with your name and one anonymous). Send your details on a separate DOC file (name, affiliation, e-mail address...).

After the submission, you should get a confirmation e-mail from us. If not in reasonable time, firstly check your spam folder, then write us again.

For submitting papers written in other languages, formats, fonts and all other questions, do not hesitate to contact us at <jtl@tdae.org>.

The deadline for the third issue (Vol. 2, No. 2) of the journal is: May 30, 2008 (new extended deadline: July 30, 2008).
